Leading with and learning the six skills of Emotional Intelligence.

Overview

Leadership is fundamentally about facilitating high performance: getting others to do things effectively and efficiently. Emotional intelligence is a key attribute that helps leaders achieve this function. There is a wealth of literature detailing the impact emotion has on individuals' performance. This research has shown for example, that people perform their best at work when they feel involved in purposeful work that develops who they are, when they feel valued, cared for, consulted, respected, informed and understood. This research has also shown that people often perform their worst when they feel unproductive feelings such as feeling overly worried, frustrated, concerned, stressed, inadequate and fearful. During this program you will improve your understanding of emotions and emotional intelligence. You will also explore and practice tools and techniques for applying emotional intelligence in leadership and creating high performance in others on that basis.

This program equips leaders with:

- An in-depth understanding of emotional intelligence and how to practically apply it in the leadership of people, the six skills are:
Self-Awareness = The Aware Leader.
Awareness of Others = The Empathetic Leader.
Authenticity = The Genuine Leader.
Emotional Reasoning = The Expansive Leader.
Self-Management = The Resilient Leader.
Inspiring Performance = The Motivational Leader.

- Insight into how often they currently demonstrate emotionally intelligent leadership behaviours and what to do to enhance it
- A tool kit, process, and techniques for being more emotionally intelligent in the leadership of people.

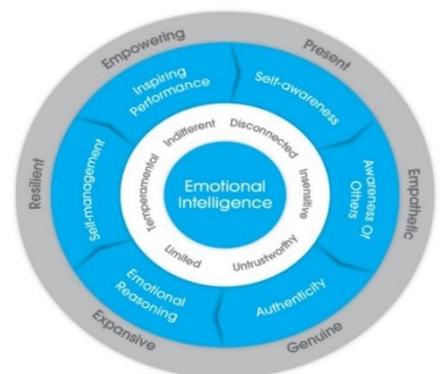

Who should attend:

Leaders of people or people managers who want to improve their personal and interpersonal skills and drive not only better employee performance, but also higher levels of employee engagement and success.
